

Ghosts, Curses & Halloween

2 Day/ 1 Night Tour

Winchester, Middletown and Staunton, Virginia

Experience Virginia's Shenandoah Valley in the fall and you may never want to return home. Known as the "Daughter of the Stars," it is a diverse and unique region awaiting your exploration. In the fall it comes alive with color and is rich with the harvest of the region.

This tour begins in Winchester, Virginia at the one of the local farm markets. Here you will have the opportunity to pick out your Halloween pumpkin or pick up your fresh apples. You may even want to purchase some homemade ice cream. Set in the countryside the drive to the market is part of the fun. The tour then moves into the historic district of Winchester and a tour of the Court House where you will find a curse to Jeff Davis written on the wall. Who wrote it and what happen to the solder? You will find out. Complete the day with a fine dinner and a Ghost tour of the town.

The second day takes you further into the Shenandoah Valley as you head to New Market Battlefield where you will be met by a handpicked costumed guide to tour part of the three-hundred acre New Market Battlefield State Historical Park. Here you will be able commemorate a unique moment in American history--- when college boys, Cadets from VMI, engaged in pitched battle. A visit to Front Royal and Belle Grove Plantation will also be on the itinerary.
